

Continue

Owens corning installation instructions

Owens Corning is a leading provider of residential and commercial building products, committed to creating a sustainable future through innovative materials. With over 25,000 employees in 31 countries, they strive to deliver durable, energy-efficient solutions that help customers succeed and grow. The company was founded in 1938 and has since grown to post $11.0 billion in sales for 2024. Owens Corning is dedicated to making a positive impact on the communities where they operate, and their commitment to sustainability has earned them a reputation as a trusted partner in the building materials industry.